Day Spa Association Launches New Website

With Exciting New Membership & Advanced Education Opportunities

Minneapolis, MN The Day Spa Association® -- DSA announced the launch of its new and innovative website along with a redesign of the DSA logo. The website and logo are part of the organization's larger intiative to provide the spa, health and wellness community with a one-stop source to connect professionals within the U.S. and around the world.

DSA President Allan Share notes, "Our website and logo have a new, fresh professional look that reflects the industry we serve! This is the first of many exciting new benefits we will be launching this year. We encourage everyone to visit our new website and to share feedback on how we can best serve the needs of our members as well as the greater wellness community".

The DSA website includes easy navigation to popular search areas including member benefits, frequently asked questions and an events calendar for both domestic and international shows. New tools are always being added, so please visit the redesigned website at www.DaySpaAssociation.com .
"These are exciting times for the DSA and our industry," says Share. "This is your association and we're committed to providing our members the tools they need to succeed."
